Delamode joins United Shipping Network

Delamode, part of the Xpediator Plc Group*, is delighted to announce that it is joining the United Shipping Network.

Established in 1988, Delamode is an experienced international provider of freight management services. Today, the Delamode Group's European network of offices provides road, sea and air freight services, together with logistics and warehousing in the UK and Romania. The business also offers integrated freight management solutions within the supply chain logistics and ecommerce sectors.

Delamode, which has strong presence in Central and Eastern Europe, currently employs over 600 people with offices located in Bulgaria, Lithuania, Latvia, Estonia, Serbia, Macedonia, Montenegro, Romania, Moldova and the UK. Initially joining the United Shipping Network will be Delamode's offices in Bulgaria, Latvia, Macedonia, Montenegro, Moldova and Serbia.

Shaun Godfrey, COO - Freight Forwarding, for Xpediator Plc, commented "The introduction and opportunity to join the United Shipping network came through Anglia Forwarding Ltd, having worked successfully for many years within the United Shipping network and who recently joined the Xpediator Plc Group. As such, we are excited and positive that our Delamode colleagues will be able to support the United Shipping network with similar services within Eastern Europe, a significant growth area and presenting lots of commercial opportunities for United Shipping network members. We are very proud that these Delamode offices will be joining such an established worldwide network and benefiting from the advantages of becoming part of a multinational logistics cooperation."
