Happy Retirement, Deb!

This message comes with mixed emotions as I announce the retirement of Deb Wagner. After over 32 years of dedication to Griffin as the VP of Sales and Marketing, Deb has decided to retire. Griffin & Company is more than just a workplace. We are a community and a family. It is hard to see one of our own leave, but I understand that it is her time.

Deb began her career at Griffin & Company on January 9, 1989, after her time at Northwest Airlines. I don't know many people who are as creative, hard-working, and reliable. When talent meets hard work, great things happen, and Deb is an example of that. Deb's absence will be hard to overcome from both a personal and professional level for me and everyone who works with her. I know it is the best decision for Deb; while we will miss her, we know that she will always be a part of Griffin. Deb's mark will have a lasting impression, and for that, I say thank you. Please join me in congratulating Deb on her retirement.

Sincerely,
Erin Doyle, President
Griffin & Company Logistics

Boss: why not?

Me: i wasn't in it

My boss just stopped in the middle of a conference call and said "You weren't even listening were you?"

I thought 'What a weird way to start a conversation'.
